RESIDENTIAL RENTAL AGREEMENT

Agreement 05 — Missing terms, penalties, and conditional escalation test case

TEST DATA NOTICE: This is a fictional synthetic agreement created solely for testing ClauseLens. It is not legal advice and must not be signed or used as a real contract.

PARTIES AND DATE

This Agreement is made on 5 October 2026 between Ananya Rao (“Landlord”) and Ritesh Malhotra (“Tenant”) for Flat 5A, Silver Fern Apartments, Jaipur, Rajasthan 302017. The details are fictional. This test agreement intentionally omits certain terms and uses conditional wording to test whether the extraction system can distinguish missing information from stated information.

1. PREMISES

The Landlord rents Flat 5A, Silver Fern Apartments, Jaipur, to the Tenant for residential use. The flat contains two bedrooms, one kitchen, two bathrooms, a living area, and a balcony. The Tenant shall not use the Premises for an unlawful purpose or create unreasonable disturbance. The Tenant may use one unassigned common parking space subject to society rules.

2. TERM

The tenancy commences on 1 November 2026 and ends on 31 October 2027. Renewal requires written agreement. No automatic renewal term is specified. The Tenant shall return vacant possession at the end of the term unless the Parties sign a renewal or applicable law provides otherwise.

3. MONTHLY RENT

Monthly rent is ■22,000, payable in advance on or before the tenth day of each month. Payment shall be made by electronic transfer or another method agreed in writing. The Agreement does not specify a late-payment fee or a fixed grace period. Any demand for unpaid rent must identify the amount and period concerned.

4. SECURITY DEPOSIT

The Tenant shall pay a refundable security deposit of ■66,000, equal to three months of the stated monthly rent. The deposit is held as security for unpaid rent, utility bills, missing keys, and damage beyond reasonable wear and tear. The deposit is not to be treated as rent for the final month unless the Parties agree in writing.

5. DEPOSIT RETURN

The Landlord shall return the undisputed deposit balance after the Tenant vacates, returns all keys, and settles outstanding charges. The Parties agree to complete a joint inspection within seven days of handover where practicable. The Agreement does not state a fixed number of days within which the deposit must be refunded. Deductions should be itemised and should not include normal wear and tear.

6. RENT ESCALATION

The monthly rent may increase by five percent if the building’s annual maintenance costs rise by more than ten percent, provided the Landlord gives the Tenant copies of the relevant society records. The clause does not specify a fixed date on which the increase takes effect. If the maintenance-cost condition is not met, this clause does not itself authorise an increase. Any separate increase must be agreed in writing.

7. TERMINATION

Either Party may request termination by written notice. The Parties shall discuss a reasonable notice period in good faith, but this Agreement does not specify a fixed number of days of notice for either the Tenant or the Landlord. A request to terminate does not remove obligations already accrued. Termination and recovery of possession remain subject to applicable law.

8. EARLY DEPARTURE

If the Tenant leaves before the end of the term without written agreement, the Landlord may claim reasonable documented losses permitted by applicable law. The Agreement does not state a fixed early-termination penalty or specify that all remaining rent automatically becomes payable. Any amount claimed must be explained and supported.

9. LATE PAYMENT AND OTHER PENALTIES

If rent is delayed, the Landlord may send a written reminder and request prompt payment. No specific daily or monthly late fee is stated. If the Tenant causes damage through negligence, the Landlord may seek the reasonable repair cost supported by an invoice or other evidence. No separate penalty amount is specified for noise, guests, or breach of building rules.

10. MAINTENANCE

The Landlord is responsible for structural repairs and major defects in concealed plumbing or fixed electrical wiring not caused by the Tenant. The Tenant shall keep the Premises clean, report leaks and defects promptly, and pay for damage caused by misuse or negligence. The Agreement does not specify a fixed monthly maintenance payment or identify who pays any separate society maintenance bill; the Parties should clarify this in writing.

11. UTILITIES

The Tenant shall pay electricity and piped gas charges for the period of occupation. The Parties will review water charges against the building bill. The Agreement does not expressly allocate internet costs or identify a fixed amount for water. The Landlord shall pay property tax unless a mandatory legal provision requires otherwise.

12. INSPECTION AND REPAIRS

The Landlord may request access for repairs or inspection after giving reasonable advance notice and arranging a mutually convenient time. Immediate access may be requested where there is an emergency involving safety or serious property damage. The Tenant shall not unreasonably obstruct necessary repairs, and the Landlord shall respect the Tenant’s privacy.

13. SUBLETTING AND OCCUPANTS

The Tenant shall not assign or sublet the Premises without the Landlord’s prior written consent. Temporary guests are allowed, provided their stay does not breach society rules or materially disturb neighbours. The Agreement does not set a maximum number of guest nights. Permanent changes to occupancy should be disclosed to the Landlord.

14. CONDITION AND INVENTORY

The Parties shall prepare an inventory at handover. The expected supplied items are two ceiling fans, one refrigerator, one water purifier, and standard bathroom fittings; the final condition and item count must be recorded in the signed inventory. The Tenant shall return supplied items, allowing for reasonable wear and tear.

15. DISPUTES AND GENERAL TERMS

The Parties shall attempt to resolve disputes through written communication before approaching a competent forum. This Agreement is governed by applicable Indian law and relevant state requirements. Any amendment must be in writing and signed by both Parties. If a term is missing or unclear, the Parties should document a mutually agreed clarification rather than assume a term that is not stated.

16. SIGNATURES

The Parties confirm that the names, dates, rent, deposit, and other stated terms are fictional sample data for testing a document-analysis system. This agreement is not intended for execution and should not be relied upon as legal advice.
